

Traumatic Brain Injury Resources

Informational Guide

Dr. Glen Johnson, a Clinical Neuropsychologist from Michigan wrote the Traumatic Brain Injury Guide. The Guide was written to help people understand head injury and prepare them for the journey ahead. A copy of the Guide is has been added to your binder. While the Guide may appear to be long, people tell us they find it easy to read and understand. If you would to recommend the Traumatic Brain Injury Guide to family and friends, it can be found on-line at www.tbiguide.com.

Community and Internet Resources:

- Brain Injury Association. Information about brain injury, research, treatment and rehabilitation, caregiver support, a bookstore and more.
 - National: www.biausa.org / 800-444-6443
 - Ohio Office: www.biaoh.org / 866-644-6242
- Centre of Neuro Skills. Information about brain injury, treatment, publications and assessment scales including Rancho Los Amigos, Glasgow Coma Scale and Disability Rating Scale. www.neuroskills.com/assess.shtml
- Hanson House TBI Clubhouse. Information to help people develop new relationships, interests, and build on their strengths and capabilities. www.hansontbiclubhouse.org
- Ohio Valley Center for Brain Injury Prevention and Rehabilitation. Located at the Ohio State University in the Department of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, the Center conducts research, provides education and develops programs to improve the quality of life of persons who experience traumatic brain injury. www.ohiovalley.org
- TBI and Brain Injury Chat. These are peer support websites for people living with brain injury, their families and friends. People support each other by sharing their experiences. www.tbihome.org and www.braininjurychat.org
- The Perspectives Network. Various resources and references to enhance awareness and knowledge of acquired/traumatic brain injury. www.tbi.org
- While You Are Waiting. Information for people who are waiting when someone is in a coma. This site was developed by Attorney Gordon S. Johnson, Jr. of the Brain Injury Law Group. www.waiting.com